CORAM : MR.JUSTICE N.N.MATHUR

Date of decision: 05/11/96

ORAL JUDGEMENT

By way of this Special Civil Application under Article 226 of the Constitution of India the petitioner challenges the order of detention dated 10.7.1996 passed by the respondent- Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad City. It is alleged that the petitioner is a bootlegger within the meaning of section 2 (b) of the Gujarat Prevention of Anti Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as "the PASA Act") and his activities had adversely affected the maintenance of public order. A case pertaining to offences under the provisions of sec.384, 323, 170, 504, 506, 511, 419, and 114 of IPC is said to have been registered against him.

2. This Court by order dated 23.7.1996 made rule returnable on 2.9.1996. The respondents have not filed any reply. However, this application is being opposed by Shri Kamal Mehta, learned AGP.

3. I have gone through the petition and the material on record with the assistance of the learned counsel for the parties. There is nothing to indicate that the activities of the petitioner as a bootlegger has in any way adversely affected the maintenance of public order. Thus, following the law laid by the Apex Court in Piyush Kantilal Mehta v. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad City and another, A.I.R. 1989 SC 491, the detention of the petitioner cannot be said to be sustainable.

4. In view of the aforesaid, the Special Civil Application is allowed and the order of detention dated 10th July 1996 is quashed and set aside. The petitioner is directed to be released forthwith, if he is not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute.
